ABOUT THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG) is a fully integrated sports, entertainment and media business comprised of dynamic and powerful assets and brands. MSG's business grew from the legendary venue widely known as "The World's Most Famous Arena." Drawing on its celebrated history, the Company builds iconic brands that set the standard for excellence and innovation while forging deep connections with diverse and passionate audiences. With an unparalleled portfolio of strategically aligned venues, content and distribution channels, the Company's three business segments — MSG Sports, MSG Media and MSG Entertainment — work together to deliver exceptional experiences that endure for generations.

MSG Sports owns and operates the New York Knicks (NBA), the New York Rangers (NHL), the New York Liberty (WNBA), the Westchester Knicks (NBADL) and the Hartford Wolf Pack (AHL). MSG Sports also promotes, produces, and/or partners on a broad array of world-class live sporting events, including world championship boxing, college basketball (BIG EAST Championship, St. John's Red Storm, Jimmy V Classic and others), tennis (BNP Paribas Showdown), WWE, Professional Bull Riders, Harlem Globetrotters, college hockey (Red Hot Hockey, The Frozen Apple) and college wrestling.

MSG Entertainment (MSGE) is one of the country's leaders in live entertainment and is recognized for its signature combination of event production, entertainment marketing and iconic venues. MSGE creates, produces and/or presents live productions, including the number one live holiday family show in America, the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, featuring the legendary Rockettes. In spring 2015, MSGE will showcase the Rockettes in a brand new theatrical production – called New York Spring Spectacular -- that embodies the energy and excitement of New York City and features dynamic, new choreography by the world renowned dance troupe. In addition, MSGE presents or hosts live entertainment events, including concerts, family shows and special events, in its diverse collection of venues, which include the Madison Square Garden Arena, The Theater at Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall, the Beacon Theatre, the Forum in Inglewood, CA, The Chicago Theatre and the Wang Theatre in Boston.

MSG Media is a leader in production and content development for multiple distribution platforms, including content originating from the Company's venues, and is comprised of regional sports networks, MSG Network and MSG+, collectively referred to as "MSG Networks." MSG Networks are home to seven professional sports teams: the Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, Buffalo Sabres and New York Red Bulls, as well as award-winning original programming. The two networks are among the nation's largest regional cable channels and together telecast more than 3,100 hours of live original programming each year, including approximately 700 live sporting events.

The Company also has more than 20 interactive websites, social networking sites and mobile applications that support these three business segments. More information on the Company is available at www.themadisonsquaregardencompany.com.

JAMES L. DOLAN

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN, THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

As executive chairman of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), James L. Dolan oversees the company's many entities, including its world-famous arena complex, professional sports teams, sports and entertainment networks, and historic showplaces. Mr. Dolan also serves as chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, one of the nation's leading media and telecommunications companies.

In his role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is responsible for the Company's overall growth strategy and manages all of its operations. He also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

To ensure the standing of the Company's premier venues, Mr. Dolan has taken on a number of restoration projects throughout his tenure. In January 2014, the legendary Forum arena in Inglewood, California re-opened after undergoing a reinvention that created the largest indoor performance venue in the country focused on music and entertainment. This followed the October 2013 completion of a three-year Transformation of the Madison Square Garden Arena designed to significantly enhance the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. Mr. Dolan was also the catalyst for a restoration of the Company's Beacon Theatre, which was renewed to its former grandeur in early 2009. Among his most significant accomplishments as MSG chairman, Mr. Dolan also spearheaded a multimillion-dollar restoration of Radio City Music Hall in 1999, returning the national landmark and MSG showpiece to its original splendor.

Over the past few years, Mr. Dolan has taken additional steps to expand MSG's entertainment properties. They include the addition of The Chicago Theatre, which was built in 1921 as one of the country's most opulent motion picture houses, and the Forum, which has been a celebrated arena in the Greater Los Angeles area since its opening in 1967.

Mr. Dolan has led MSG's response to local and national tragedies. He played a principal role in organizing several extraordinary benefit concerts, including "12-12-12," which raised more than $50 million for the victims of Hurricane Sandy; "The Concert For New York City," which generated more than $35 million in aid for 9/11 victims and heroes; and "From The Big Apple to The Big Easy," which raised nearly $9 million for Hurricane Katrina relief. Mr. Dolan also supports The Madison Square Garden Company's ongoing commitment to the community, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works closely with all areas at the company to help children throughout the New York metropolitan area.

In addition to his leadership role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, which served as MSG's parent company until February 2010, when the sports, media and entertainment business became a standalone, public company. Mr. Dolan oversees Cablevision's comprehensive portfolio of advanced Optimum-branded telecommunications products, including its digital cable television, digital voice and high-speed Internet services, and Optimum WiFi, the nation's most robust wireless Internet network.

Also under his purview, and serving the New York tri-state area, are Cablevision's local media and programming properties, which include News 12 Networks and Newsday Media Group, featuring Long Island's leading daily newspaper, Newsday.

Prior to assuming his present posts at Cablevision and The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan was chief executive officer of Rainbow Media Holdings, the former Cablevision programming subsidiary that became a separate, public company named AMC Networks Inc. in June 2011. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and held a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow Media.

Mr. Dolan serves on the board of directors for The Madison Square Garden Company and AMC Networks, and is a member of Cablevision's board of directors and its executive committee. He is also on the board of The Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998 which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research. In addition, he sits on the boards of Tribeca Enterprises, C-SPAN and the Breathe Easy Play Hard Foundation, and is a member of the New York University Steinhardt Dean's Council.

TAD SMITH

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

Tad Smith serves as president and chief executive officer of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), overseeing all aspects of the company, including the overall strategy and day-to-day operations of MSG Sports, MSG Media and MSG Entertainment, as well as its administrative areas, including Finance, Legal, Human Resources, Communications and Business Operations. He also serves as alternate governor to the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Rangers.

The Madison Square Garden Company's signature assets include an unparalleled portfolio of iconic venues: New York's Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall and Beacon Theatre; the Forum in Inglewood, California; The Chicago Theatre; and the Wang Theatre in Boston. GLEN SATHER

PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Through the selection of franchise cornerstones in the draft and acquisition of significant pieces in trades and free agent signings, Rangers President and General Manager Glen Sather continues to illustrate why he is one of the great architects in the history of hockey management. With 37 years of hockey experience on his Hall of Fame resume, which includes five Stanley Cup Championships, he is the league's longest tenured general manager, serving the past 14 seasons with New York and prior to that, 21 years in Edmonton.

By constructing a roster with a combination of exciting, homegrown talent and veteran leadership, Sather has laid the foundation for long-term success. Since 2005-06, the Blueshirts have totaled 375 wins and a .587 points percentage, ranking fourth in the Eastern Conference. Last season, the Rangers advanced to the Stanley Cup Final after finishing the regular season with a 45-31-6 record, and defeating Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Montreal in the playoffs.

The Rangers have won 40 or more games in seven of the last eight full seasons, and seven of the last nine seasons overall. It is the first time in franchise history the Rangers have registered seven 40-win seasons in a nine-season span. The Blueshirts are also one of six teams that have reached the 40-win mark at least seven times since the 2005-06 season, along with San Jose, Detroit, Nashville, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh. New York is also one of four teams in the NHL to advance to the playoffs in eight of the last nine seasons, along with Pittsburgh, Detroit, and San Jose. The Rangers are one of three teams, along with Los Angeles and Chicago, to advance to the Conference Finals in at least two of the last three seasons. The Blueshirts have played 57 playoff games over the last three seasons, which ranks second among NHL teams.

Sather became New York's 12th President and 10th General Manager on June 1, 2000. He also served as head coach from January 30, 2003 to February 25, 2004. Sather led the Edmonton Oilers to five Stanley Cup Championships between 1984 – 1990, overseeing the development of a revolutionary team concept as well as some of the finest individual talents ever to play the game. Sather's achievements were recognized and honored on September 9, 1997 when he became the first member of the Edmonton Oilers organization to be selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame.

During his tenure with the Oilers, the club posted a 791-660-215 record in 1,666 regular season games (.539 winning percentage), capturing three Presidents' Trophies, six division titles and six conference championships. In Stanley Cup playoff action, Sather's teams compiled a 133-82 record in 215 games (.619 winning percentage), leading to the club's five Stanley Cup titles.

Upon his retirement as a player following the 1976-77 season, Sather immediately joined the coaching ranks, guiding the Edmonton Oilers to 12 straight WHA and NHL playoff appearances, four Stanley Cup Championships and five Stanley Cup Finals appearances between 1977 and 1989. Sather added the title of General Manager on June 15, 1979, and was named the team's President prior to the 1982-83 seasons.

Before embarking on his executive career, Sather put together one of the most impressive coaching records in NHL history. He has served as a Head Coach in 932 NHL regular season games, compiling a record of 497-307-128 (.602 winning percentage), ranking 20th on the NHL's all-time coaching list in victories. In 127 Stanley Cup playoff games, Sather posted a record of 89-37-1. He ranks seventh on the all-time list for playoff wins and first all-time with a .705 playoff winning percentage. He received the Jack Adams Trophy as the NHL's Coach of the Year in 1985-86 and is one of only six coaches to coach in five or more NHL All-Star Games.

Sather's knowledge of the game, tactical negotiating strategies, strong developmental skills, and keen ability to get the best out of his players are keys to his managerial success. During his administration in Edmonton, Sather developed a dynasty by nurturing talented draft picks Mark Messier, Kevin Lowe, Jari Kurri, Grant Fuhr, Paul Coffey, Esa Tikkanen and Glenn Anderson, along with the acquisition of a rising star named Wayne Gretzky.

Sather's management experience and success also carries over to the international arena. He served as Team Canada's General Manager and Coach for the 1996 World Cup of Hockey. He also guided Team Canada's 1994 Canada Cup Championship and was the General Manager of the gold medal-winning team in the 1994 World Hockey Championships.

A native of High River, Alberta, Sather enjoyed a successful junior career with the Edmonton Oil Kings. Following the completion of his amateur days, he became property of the Detroit Red Wings but would never wear a Winged Wheel jersey. After a season with the Central League's Memphis Wings, Sather was drafted away from the Red Wings by the Boston Bruins in 1965, and would make his National Hockey League debut with the Bruins in the 1966-67 season. Sather would go on to play 10 seasons in the NHL with the Boston Bruins, Pittsburgh Penguins, New York Rangers, St. Louis Blues, Montreal Canadiens and Minnesota North Stars. In 658 regular season games, the feisty winger registered 80 goals and 113 assists for 193 points, along with 724 penalty minutes.

As a member of the New York Rangers from 1970 through 1974, Sather appeared in 188 regular season games, recording 18 goals and 24 assists for 42 points, along with 193 penalty minutes. In addition, he was a member of the 1971-72 Rangers club which advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals.

ROD GILBERT

Director, Special Projects and Community Relations Representative | Now in his 26th season with the Rangers, currently serving as the Director, Special Projects and Community Relations Representative. Gilbert rejoined the club on August 1, 1989 to administer the growth and development of the NY Rangers Alumni Association, as well as assist in many areas of community and sponsor relations. He also serves as a goodwill ambassador for Madison Square Garden, and lends his support to the Garden of Dreams Foundation through appearances, media interviews and visiting with children from Garden of Dreams' charity partners during special games at the Garden.

An integral part of the New York Sports scene for years, Gilbert has made countless appearances on behalf of the team in order to help raise funds and generate awareness for various charitable groups throughout the Tri-State area.

Born on July 1, 1941, Gilbert won the hearts of New York fans while becoming a NHL legend during his 16-year career, all as a Ranger, from 1960-61 to 1977-78. During his career, Gilbert set or equaled 20 team scoring records, and at the time of his retirement in 1977, was second only to Gordie Howe in total points scored by a right winger in NHL history. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1982.

The Montreal, Quebec native finished his NHL career with 406 goals and 615 assists for 1,021 points in 1,065 NHL games, along with 34 goals and 33 assists in 79 playoff matches. He ranks first on the Rangers' all-time goals and points lists, and is the only Blueshirt to tally at least 400 career goals or at least 1,000 career points.

Playing with Jean Ratelle and Vic Hadfield on the 'GAG Line' (goal-a-game) in 1971-72, Gilbert established career-highs with 43 goals and 97 points and earned First Team All-Star honors. Over the course of his career, he appeared in eight NHL All-Star Games, and was voted a Second Team All-Star in 1967-68.

In 1976, Gilbert was awarded the Masterton Trophy, which is awarded annually to the player "who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." The award was a fitting tribute to the courage and spirit of Gilbert, recognizing the hard work and determination that helped him overcome major back surgery early in his career, including two follow-up spinal fusion operations, to establish himself as one of hockey's all-time greats.

In September 2007, the National Hockey League Alumni Association honored Rod Gilbert with the 2007 Man of the Year Award.

Gilbert is immortalized in New York hockey history, as his #7 was raised to the Garden rafters on October 14, 1979. He and his wife, Judy, reside in Manhattan and serve on the board of the Ronald McDonald House.

ADAM GRAVES

Hockey And Business Operations | Returned to the Rangers organization on July 19, 2005 in a dual role that uses his myriad of abilities in both the on-ice and off-ice areas of the organization. In this capacity, Graves works with the club's hockey personnel to advance the development of key Rangers prospects, while also assisting in the development and execution of the organization's many community outreach programs as well as marketing and sponsorship initiatives.

Graves plays an integral role in strengthening the bond between the team and its fans while developing future Blueshirt loyalists. He is involved in a variety of youth hockey and season subscription events, and is instrumental in supporting the efforts of the Garden of Dreams Foundation through appearances, media interviews and participation in the fulfillment of fundraising auction experiences.

With a keen eye for talent, Graves has become an essential member of the hockey operations department. His ability to lend support and direction, both on and off the ice, has benefited many key prospects within the Rangers system. He is also involved in free agency signings and the NHL Draft with the Rangers as well as the development of players with the Hartford Wolf Pack.

Extremely active in the community throughout his career and after, Graves was recognized by the NHL with its King Clancy Memorial Trophy in 1994, presented annually to the NHL player "who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and has made noteworthy humanitarian contributions to his community." In 2000, he was honored with the NHL Players Foundation award, "recognizing the NHL player who applies the core values of hockey - commitment, perseverance and teamwork - to enrich the lives of people in his community." Graves added his name to the Bill Masterton Trophy in 2001, an award given annually by the Professional Hockey Writer's Association (PHWA) to the "NHL player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey."

During his 10-year playing career with the Rangers, he worked tirelessly in the greater metropolitan area with various charitable organizations, including Family Dynamics, Toys for Tots, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Dime Hometown Heroes, and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. As a result of his extensive civic efforts, Graves was also recognized with honors from countless organizations and publications, including USA Weekend's "Most Caring Athlete" Award, Sports Illustrated for Kids' "Good Sport" Award and 'The Sporting News' "Good Guy" Award.

As a Ranger, Graves collected 280 goals and 227 assists for 507 points in 772 games. He ranks third on the Rangers' all-time goals list and is 10th on the club's all-time scoring list. He established a Rangers single-season record for most goals scored with 52 during the 1993-94 campaign, breaking Vic Hadfield's 22-year old club record of 50. His record stood for 12 years until Jaromir Jagr scored 54 goals in 2005-06. A two-time Stanley Cup champion, capturing titles with the 1989-90 Edmonton Oilers and the 1993-94 Rangers, Graves represented the Blueshirts at the 1994 NHL All-Star Game and was selected as a NHL Second Team All-Star in 1994.

In addition, Graves received numerous Rangers team awards, including: Most Valuable Player (92-93, 93-94); Player's Player (91-92, 92-93, 94-95, 98-99); Ceil Saidel Memorial Award (94-95, 95-96, 96-97, 97-98, 98-99, 99-00, 00-01); Steven McDonald Award (91-92, 92-93, 93-94, 98-99, 99-00); Good Guy Award (92-93); Frank Boucher Trophy (93-94); and Crumb Bum Award (1993).

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Graves signed with New York as a free agent on September 3, 1991. He was originally drafted by the Detroit Red Wings in the second round, 22nd overall, of the 1986 NHL Entry Draft. Over his 16-year NHL career, the left winger played in 1,152 career games with the Detroit Red Wings, Oilers, Rangers, and San Jose Sharks, registering 329 goals and 287 assists for 616 points.

Graves joined a select group of New York hockey immortals when his #9 was raised to the Garden rafters on February 3, 2009. He and his wife, Violet, have three children: daughters, Madison and Montana, and son, Logan.

KEN GERNANDER

Head Coach | Ken Gernander was named head coach of the Hartford Wolf Pack on July 23, 2007, becoming the fifth head coach in franchise history.

Gernander, 45, previously served as an assistant coach of the Wolf Pack for two seasons after concluding an illustrious 14-year playing career in April of 2005. A member of the Rangers organization since signing as a free agent in 1994, Gernander served as captain of the club's top minor league affiliate in each of his last 10 years on the ice (all eight years in Hartford, plus the final two seasons in Binghamton).

The native of Coleraine, Minnesota accumulated 637 points (300 goals, 337 assists) in 986 games with the Fort Wayne Komets of the International Hockey League (IHL) and the Moncton Hawks, Binghamton Rangers and Hartford Wolf Pack of the American Hockey League (AHL). Gernander retired as the highest-scoring American-born player (293-331-624) in AHL history and ranked eighth all-time in AHL games played (973). He is the Wolf Pack all-time franchise recordholder in games-played (599) and playoff games-played (78). Gernander also ranks second all-time in goals (160), assists (187) and points (347) in Wolf Pack franchise history. In Calder Cup playoff action, he has recorded 27 goals and 29 assists for 56 points, along with 20 penalty minutes in his 123 career post-season games. On April 26, 2005, he established a new AHL record (since surpassed) for most playoff game appearances when he skated in his 121st post-season outing vs. Lowell, surpassing Fred Glover.

A three-time AHL All-Star, Gernander also captained the 1999 PlanetUSA team at the AHL All-Star Classic in Philadelphia. He was twice voted recipient of the Fred T. Hunt Memorial Award for sportsmanship, determination and dedication to hockey in 1996 and 2004. As a member of the Wolf Pack, he was voted team MVP in 1998 and recipient of the "Bob Girouard Memorial Character" award in 2002, best defensive forward in 2002 and an American Specialty/AHL Man of the Year nominee in 2004.

A four-year letterman at the University of Minnesota, Gernander was originally drafted by Winnipeg with the 96th overall choice in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft. For his NHL career, he skated in 12 contests, all with the Rangers, registering two goals and three assists for five points, along with 15 penalty minutes. In addition, Gernander appeared in 15 Stanley Cup playoff games for New York.

He and his wife, Kerby, have one son, Micah, and two daughters, McKenna and Miranda.

Madison Square Garden

The World's Most Famous Arena

The Rangers images alone are endless, burning, unforgettable... Pete Stemkowski in triple OT... Ed-die, Ed-die... Mark Messier, Cup in hand, wiping out 54 years of frustration... The Great One's farewell...

Those images just scratch the surface of this building, which also featured Hope and Crosby on Opening Night... Willis Reed out of the tunnel for Game Seven... 19 straight Knicks points against Milwaukee... Sinatra in The Main Event... Ali and Frazier in The Fight... The Dunk... Patrick Ewing slam-dunking the Knicks into the Finals... LJ's four-pointer... The Stones and The Dead and The King and The Pope and Streisand and Carter and Clinton and Bush...

It could all only happen in one place... Not a mere building but a state of mind... The greatest of the great in sports, arts and entertainment, summed up in three words... Madison Square Garden... The World's Most Famous Arena...

BEGINNINGS

The current Garden - located between 31st and 33rd Streets and Seventh and Eighth Avenues on Manhattan's West Side - is the fourth building (third site) to be named Madison Square Garden.

Garden I was located at Madison Square: 26th Street and Madison Avenue. It was originally opened in 1874 (at a cost of $35,000) by the legendary P.T. Barnum as "Barnum's Monster Classical and Geological Hippodrome." However, it was soon renamed "Gilmore's Garden" when the lease was auctioned off to bandmaster Patrick S. Gilmore (the term "Garden" was used often during this period to denote a place of public gathering and entertainment).

The building, which had 28-foot walls without a roof, hosted a varied schedule of social and fraternal meetings, flower shows and commercial exhibitions. When Gilmore's lease expired in 1878, it was picked up briefly by W. M. Tileson.

The following year, William Vanderbilt of the New York Central Railroad assumed control of the facility and officially renamed it "Madison Square Garden" on May 31, 1879. Featuring a sports and entertainment program that stressed such events as boxing and the National Horse Show, Garden I stood until its demolition in 1889.

Garden II was constructed on the site of Garden I, opening on Jun. 16, 1890 at a cost of $1.5 million. It contained an 8,000-seat main arena, 1,500-seat concert hall, 1,200-seat theatre and the world's largest indoor swimming pool. The Spanish Renaissance-style structure was topped by its most famous feature: a 32-story tower and roof garden atop which stood Augustus Saint-Gauden's gold statue of Diana, Goddess of the Hunt.

Stanford White, the renowned architect who designed Garden II, also figured in its most famous - and infamous - event. On the night of Jun. 25, 1906, White was gunned down in the Garden's rooftop garden by Pittsburgh millionaire Harry Thaw, allegedly in revenge for White's long-standing affair with Thaw's wife, showgirl Evelyn Nesbit. The White-Thaw-Nesbit love triangle was ultimately immortalized in the 1955 film The Girl in the Red Velvet

Swing - starring Ray Milland as White and Joan Collins as Nesbit - and in the recent best-seller American Eve by Paula Uruburu (Riverhead Books, 2008). Nesbit died in obscurity in California at age 81 in 1967.

Garden II hosted a sporting card heavy with boxing, wrestling, six-day bicycle races and horse shows, along with national events such as the 1924 Democratic National Convention, a marathon that lasted through 16 days and 103 ballots. Movie buffs will recall that in Orson Welles' 1941 classic Citizen Kane, Charles Foster Kane's acceptance of the 1916 New York gubernatorial nomination takes place at Garden II (although, obviously, it wasn't actually filmed there).

Garden II closed with a boxing card on May 5, 1925, followed by a mournful eulogy by ring announcer Joe Humphreys: "Farewell to thee, o temple of fistiana. Farewell to thee, o sweet Miss Diana...". The New York Life Insurance Building (51 Madison Avenue) occupies the former site of Gardens I and II, while Diana found a new home at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Garden III - the "Old Garden" - was built in just 249 days at 49th Street and Eighth Avenue under the watchful eyes of promoter Tex Rickard and architect Thomas Lamb. The fabled 18,000-seat arena, built at a cost of $5.6 million, opened with a six-day bicycle race on Nov. 24, 1925, and for 43 years was America's premier sports and entertainment showplace. Ironically, Rickard did not live to see the blossoming of Garden III, suffering a fatal appendicitis attack on Jan. 6, 1929.

Anyone who ever set foot in the Old Garden remembers its unforgettable atmosphere...the sky-high balcony...the haze from decades of cigarette smoke...the main lobby, a schmoozer's paradise...the marquee...G.O. Cards... the organ (played first by Gladys Goodding, later by Virginia Thomas)...the unmistakable voice of John Condon...the Nedick's and Adam Hats stores that flanked the main entrance...

Sports - especially hockey, basketball, boxing and track - would be the lifeblood of the Old Garden. But it also hosted entertainment extravaganzas ranging from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus and the Gene Autry Rodeo to star-studded spectacles like Mike Todd's 1957 anniversary party for his film Around the World in 80 Days and President

John F. Kennedy's May 19, 1962 birthday party which featured Marilyn Monroe's breathless version of "Happy Birthday." On the screen, the Garden provided the inspiration, and title, for the 1932 Paramount epic Madison Square Garden, starring Jack Oakie and ZaSu Pitts, as well as the on-location backdrop for the harrowing final reel of John Frankenheimer's 1962 classic The Manchurian Candidate.

The first NHL team to play at Garden III was the New York Americans, who rented the building for the 1925-26 season. The Rangers played their first regular-season NHL game there on Nov. 16, 1926, beating the Montreal Maroons 1-0. In the 42 years the Rangers played on 49th Street, they would win three Stanley Cup championships (1928, 1933 and 1940) and develop a host of Hall of Famers, including Bill Cook, Frank Boucher, Ching Johnson, Babe Pratt, Neil Colville, Chuck Rayner, Andy Bathgate, Harry Howell, Gump Worsley, Rod Gilbert, Jean Ratelle and Eddie Giacomin.

The Rangers played their final game at the Old Garden on the afternoon of Feb. 11, 1968; a 3-3 tie with Detroit. The last event ever was the Westminster Dog Show, over Feb. 12-13, 1968. After the Old Garden was demolished, the site was used for years as a Kinney parking lot. The Worldwide Plaza office/apartment complex, which opened in 1989, now occupies the site.

Garden IV On Nov. 3, 1960, Garden president Irving Mitchell Felt announced plans for a new Madison Square Garden - Garden IV - to eventually be built at 33rd Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, atop Pennsylvania Station.

Prospective sites for a New Garden had been discussed throughout the mid- and late-'50s, especially the area at Columbus Circle which would eventually house the New York Coliseum and, ultimately, the Time Warner Center.

Then the Garden Corporation obtained the coveted "air rights" above Penn Station from the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1961. The Railroad had entertained the idea of selling Penn Station's air rights as far back as 1951, when faced with a $72 million deficit. In 1955, Railroad president James Symes and famed real estate developer William Zeckendorf signed an agreement to option the Station's air rights for an industrial-commercial "Palace of Progress", with a new, renovated Penn Station below street level. When the project fell through, the Railroad sold the air rights to the Garden Corporation. Above-ground demolition of Penn Station began on Oct. 28, 1963, with new concrete poured starting on May 1, 1964.

Garden IV opened as a glittering sports and entertainment showplace, with its distinctive circular, cable-suspended roof above the 19,000-seat arena, its 5,000-seat Felt Forum, 48-lane Bowling Center, 500-seat cinema, Hall of Fame Club, National Art Museum of Sport, 50,000-square foot Exposition Rotunda and 29-story office building (Two Penn Plaza) attached by a pedestrian mall.

The first element of the New Garden complex to open its doors was the Bowling Center, on Oct. 30, 1967. On Nov. 26, 1967, the Felt Forum opened with a performance of the Welsh and Scots Guards.

The "New Garden" itself officially opened on Feb. 11, 1968, when Bob Hope and Bing Crosby hosted "The Night of the Century," a star-studded salute to the USO. One week later – Feb. 18, 1968 – the Rangers played their first game in their new home, a 3-1 victory over a Philadelphia Flyers team that had entered the NHL that season in what signaled the end of the NHL's Original Six era.

ODDS 'N ENDS

- Cost for design and construction of the present Garden was $43 million.
- Garden IV was built by Turner Construction and the Del E. Webb Corporation. The building was designed by Charles Luckman, the fabled entrepreneur and architect who died in 1999. Luckman also designed the Great Western Forum, the Los Angeles Convention Center, CBS Television City, the Prudential Center in Boston and the Johnson Space Center in Houston.
- The Garden arena is 425 feet in diameter, 13 stories high, and occupies 820,000-square feet of real estate.
- Each of the four entrance/exit towers is over 100 feet high and contains at least 10 escalators.
- Seating capacity for Rangers hockey is 18,200.

THROUGH THE YEARS

A look at the improvements/enhancements at Garden IV over the years:

1972: Garden IV becomes the first New York sports venue to install luxury boxes, formally named "Hall of Fame Lounges." The original deck of 11 luxury suites - each measuring 23x15 feet and accommodating 10 people - is installed above the mezzanine level on the 33rd Street side. Due to the ongoing luxury suite construction, basketball broadcast locations are moved to courtside and directly above center-court exit tunnels. Previously, they had been located in a two-level booth suspended from the roof.

1977: Original end zone scoreboards replaced by new 36-foot long scoreboards in each end zone, and smaller auxiliary boards on the facing of the mezzanine at center court. New boards feature tenth-of-a-second timing capabilities and black-and-white animated matrix boards.

1989-91: Over a three-year span, the Garden complex undergoes its most extensive renovation to date, a multi-million dollar effort in which:

- Each of the original red, orange, yellow, green and blue seats is removed and replaced. Primary color scheme is now purple and teal.
- Existing scoreboards are replaced by a computerized, state-of-the-art system that features the eight-sided Center Display Board (37 feet wide at the top, 34 feet wide at the bottom), complete with "GardenVision" color replay screens and multi-colored end zone boards, by White Way Company of Chicago. It is the first eight-sided scoreboard in a major U.S. arena. Original Garden sound system is also completely overhauled, including the replacement of the original center-hung "sound cluster" with four separate speaker clusters affixed to the arena ceiling.

- Original Hall of Fame Lounges (luxury boxes) are removed and replaced by a completely new deck of 89 Club Suites that encircles the entire arena, including a double-deck of suites on the 7th Avenue end.
- The Paramount, a state-of-the-art, 5,600-seat theatre, is constructed on the former site of the Felt Forum, now named the Theater at Madison Square Garden. Fronting the main entrance is the Garden Walk of Fame, which opens in 1992.
- Two dining facilities - The Club Restaurant and the Play-By-Play sports bar and restaurant - are constructed on the former site of the Bowling Center and the Hall of Fame Club.
- Garden exterior renovated, including the installations of animated color matrix boards above the Seventh Avenue entrance to Penn Station and the Eighth Avenue facade.
- Upgrades and improvements in other areas of the Garden, including concession stands (and all-new Food Courts), locker rooms, press room, box office, Garden Team Store and broadcast facilities.

1995: Knicks and Rangers locker room areas are further renovated and expanded, including increased player/locker space, expanded training and X-ray facilities and individual offices for all coaches.

2000: Ongoing improvement program in the new century features "GardenVision" upgraded to HD format, making it the first indoor arena to feature HD playback.

2007: LED and Matrix center scoreboard and side out-of-town boards installed.

THE GARDEN TRANSFORMED

On October 25, 2013, Madison Square Garden began a new chapter in its celebrated history, with the completion of its three-year Transformation. The unprecedented project, which required 2.6 million man hours of labor, touched every aspect of the Arena, significantly enhancing the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and marketing partners, from the first row to the last.

The Transformed Garden ensures that the World's Most Famous Arena will continue to attract the historic, unforgettable events for which it has been known throughout its history, while also elevating the total customer experience. Patrons now have access to a full list of amenities including: improved sightlines; additional entertainment and dining options; new concourses; upgraded hospitality areas; new technology; and a completely transformed interior, which was carefully planned to maintain the unique intimacy of the Arena bowl and The Garden's world famous ceiling.

Specific highlights include:

- The new Chase Square Seventh Avenue entrance, which is nearly double in size of the previous entrance and features interactive kiosks, retail space and a broadcast area, along with an area dedicated to celebrating the efforts of the Garden of Dreams Foundation, a non-profit charity supported by MSG;
- Public concourses that are double or triple in width, some with spectacular city views;
- A wide new selection of food and beverage options, including exclusive food offerings from our MSG Signature Collection, featuring some of New York's top chefs;
- Improved upper bowl sightlines that put patrons more than 17 degrees closer to the action;
- New Chase bridges that provide one-of-a-kind views of the arena floor and offer a unique perspective for fans;
- State of the art lighting, sound and LED video systems in high definition and new fiber-optic cabling throughout the building;
- Improved locker rooms, dressing rooms, green rooms and production offices;
- Additional restrooms with 50 percent more capacity;
- Unique exhibits celebrating the Garden's stories history, including the Garden 366 visual retrospective and the Defining Moments Exhibit on the Madison and Concourse levels; and
- A whole new slate of suite and entertainment offerings, including:
  - 21 Event Level suites that offer a lounge/entertainment atmosphere
  - 51 Madison Level suites that are 40 percent larger than our previous suites, and located as close as 23 rows above the arena floor
  - 18 transformed 9th Floor Signature Level suites; and
  - Three new club spaces: the 1879 Club presented by J.P. Morgan; the Delta SKY360 Club on the Event Level and the Madison Club presented by Foxwoods on the 7th floor

Today's acclaim for Madison Square Garden is a testament to the careful planning and execution of the Transformation – and a signal that The Garden's future will be as bright as its celebrated past.

"New York is not a city. It is a set of cities, dozens of them, divided by caste, class, taste and blood. Most of us are welcome in a few of these cities, barred from others by tradition, or fear, or indifference, or income. But all of us hold safe conduct passes to The Garden. It is a center of experience for the same reason New York is: nothing is out of place there. Walk through a neighborhood of New York and you will find people who would never dream of setting foot in Carnegie Hall, the Empire State Building, the Fillmore East, Sunnyside Gardens, The Four Seasons, or the Bronx Zoo. Madison Square Garden is alien to none of us."- Jeff Greenfield, 1974

Entering the 89th year of operation, the NEW YORK RANGERS have entertained fans with some of the most memorable moments in New York sporting history. Playing at Madison Square Garden, the World's Most Famous Arena, the Rangers have built a storied reputation on pride, passion and tradition.

It might seem hard to believe, but the New York Rangers were once an NHL expansion team.

The year was 1926, and hockey was already a popular sport at Madison Square Garden – only the team of choice was not yet the Blueshirts. Back then, another NHL squad, the old New York Americans, were drawing big crowds in their first season at The Garden.

The Americans, who wore stars-and-stripes jerseys patterned after the American flag, proved that MSG was a perfect venue for hockey. Garden President George Lewis "Tex" Rickard came to realize that the time was ripe for a second New York hockey team – one owned and operated by The Garden itself. Working with the league, Rickard managed to secure a team for the 1926-27 season.

Rickard knew he had to put a strong team on the ice to compete with the Americans and win over the loyalty of New Yorkers just discovering hockey. To assemble this team, he convinced one of the brightest minds in hockey, Conn Smythe, to leave his post at the University of Toronto. Rickard encouraged Smythe to travel throughout North America in search of the most talented "undiscovered" players he could find.

Smythe ended up laying the groundwork for a team that was instantly a Stanley Cup contender. In the course of one summer, he found future Hall of Fame forwards Frank Boucher, Bill Cook, and Bun Cook; Hall of Fame defenseman Ivan 'Ching' Johnson; and second line winger Murray Murdoch, who would become hockey's first 'iron man' by playing 508 consecutive games.

As Smythe was out signing players, sportswriters back in New York began referring to the team as 'Tex's Rangers'. The name stuck, and Rickard formally adopted it – stripping the word "Rangers" diagonally across the front of a blue jersey to make his team stand out from the Americans, whose name was displayed horizontally on the players' jerseys.

Before the start of the 1926-27 season, Smythe left the team he had built as a result of disagreements with Garden management. Rickard looked west to British Columbia, where he found one of hockey's great pioneers in Lester Patrick. Although Smythe had put the roster together, it was Patrick who would mold it into a championship team.

The Rangers immediately established themselves as a formidable hockey team in New York, surpassing the Americans in both the NHL standings and in popularity. They finished their first season with the best record in the American Division, and team captain Bill Cook led the league with 33 goals and 37 points. The following year, they won the first of the franchise's four Stanley Cup championships, defeating the Montreal Maroons three games to two. During Game 2 of the series, the 44-year old Patrick made headlines and hockey history by substituting himself for injured goaltender Lorne Chabot and holding his own in net for the win.

Since the Rangers pulled off their remarkable feat in 1928, no other NHL team has ever won the Cup in its first two years of existence.

The Rangers quickly earned the adoration of New Yorkers with a reputation for hard, clean play. Combined with Patrick's innovative tactics, the Rangers became known as 'the classiest team in hockey,' advancing to the finals four times in their first seven years.

Boucher epitomized the club's style and grace, winning the Lady Byng Trophy so frequently that the league allowed him to keep the original silverware and struck a new award. Bill Cook, who still holds the Rangers career record of 11 hat tricks, brought the bulk of the offense. Bill, a right winger, and his brother Bun, a left winger, flanked Boucher to form one of the top lines in franchise history.

Bill Cook led the NHL with 28 goals and 50 points in 1932-33, and scored the Cup-clinching goal in overtime in Game 4 of the 1933 Stanley Cup Finals to give the Rangers their second Stanley Cup in franchise history.

By the late 1930s, New York had a new group of stars. The team acquired goalie Davey Kerr from the Maroons in 1934 and defenseman Art Coulter from Chicago in 1936, and the duo formed the backbone of the next great Rangers team. Prior to the 1939-40 season, Boucher succeeded Patrick as coach, and needed almost no time at all to bring the Cup back to New York. Led by Hall of Famers Neil Colville and Bryan Hextall, the Rangers won their third Stanley Cup title in 1940. Two years later, they were regular-season champions, thanks largely to the trio of Hextall, Lynn Patrick (Lester's son) and Phil Watson, who finished first, second, and fourth, respectively, in league scoring.

In their first 16 seasons, the Rangers missed the playoffs only once, and only twice did they fall lower than third place. By the early 1940s, the Blueshirts' popularity contributed to the decline of the Americans, who left The Garden for Brooklyn before eventually folding in 1942. During the 16-year span in which they were one of two New York hockey teams, the Rangers won one regular season championship, two American Division championships, and finished second in the league three times and Rangers games at The Garden became popular, attracting a 'dinner-jacket' crowd that often included sports figures, Broadway entertainers, New York's society elite and City Hall politicians.

THE ORIGINAL SIX ERA

In 1942, the Rangers became the only hockey team in the New York metropolitan area – a distinction they would hold for the next 30 years. The folding of the Americans had left just six NHL teams to compete for the Stanley Cup from the 1942-43 season all the way through the 1966-67 season – the final year before the modern NHL expansion began. The six teams that played during these golden years would forever be known as the Original Six, even though several of them, including the Rangers, were not part of the NHL when the league began operating in 1917.

Unfortunately, the Original Six era wasn't good to New York. The club struggled throughout the 1940s, as several members of the Rangers' all-star lineup served in their country's armed forces during World War II. Between 1943 and 1955, the Rangers made the playoffs only twice, although the second trip in 1950 took the Blueshirts all the way to the Stanley Cup Finals. New York pushed Detroit to the second overtime of Game 7 despite having to play home games in Toronto because the circus was at MSG. The 1950 Rangers' team was the ultimate Cinderella squad; they finished with a losing record in the regular season, yet stunned Montreal in the opening round before giving the regular-season champion Red Wings a major scare by taking a 3-2 lead after five games.

While the 1940s and most of the 1950s were lean years for the organization, each Rangers team featured outstanding individual talents: Buddy O'Connor became the first Ranger to win the Hart Trophy as NHL MVP in 1947-48, and goalie Chuck Rayner won it again in 1949-50 en route to his dramatic effort in the 1950 Stanley Cup Finals.

A fertile farm system and deft trades would eventually improve the team's fortunes. Hall of Famers Andy Bathgate, Dean Prentice, Harry Howell, Bill Gadsby and Gump Worsley boosted the team into the playoffs by 1956. Bathgate became the club's captain and all-time leading scorer, winning the Hart Trophy in 1958-59. Howell was recognized as one of the best defensemen in the league, and received the Norris Trophy as the NHL's top blueliner in 1966-67.

With Bathgate and Howell still in their prime, a Rangers Renaissance took hold in the 1960s under the leadership of Head Coach and General Manager Emile Francis. Beginning in the last season of the Original Six Era of 1966-67, the club made the playoffs nine consecutive seasons and was the only NHL team of the period to do so. Led by Rod Gilbert, who eclipsed Bathgate's club scoring records, and linemates Jean Ratelle and Vic Hadfield, the Rangers became a perennial NHL powerhouse for the first time since World War II began. In addition to their offensive firepower, the Rangers were boosted by a pair of future Hall of Famers: goaltender Ed Giacomin and defenseman Brad Park.

The apex of that dominating stretch came in 1971-72. The Rangers finished the season with a 48-17-13 record, good enough for the second-best record in the NHL. Hadfield became the first Rangers player to record 50 goals in a season, and Ratelle established a franchise record by tallying 109 points in just 63 games. The Blueshirts defeated Montreal and Chicago to advance to the Stanley Cup Finals, where they ultimately lost to Boston in six games.

At the end of the season, the Rangers learned they would not be New York's only hockey team any longer, as the NHL announced the formation of the Islanders, who would quickly emerge as the Blueshirts' most bitter local rival.

Following a two-year absence from post-season play in the mid- 1970s, a new core of Rangers led the team to another Stanley Cup Finals run. After hiring Fred Shero as head coach and general manager in 1978, the Rangers quickly signed Swedish superstars Ulf Nilsson and Anders Hedberg, who had dominated the World Hockey Association. Hedberg and Nilsson were joined by future Hall of Famer Phil Esposito and a cast of young, homegrown talent that included Ron Greschner, Dave and Don Maloney, Don Murdoch, Ron Duguay and Mike McEwen.

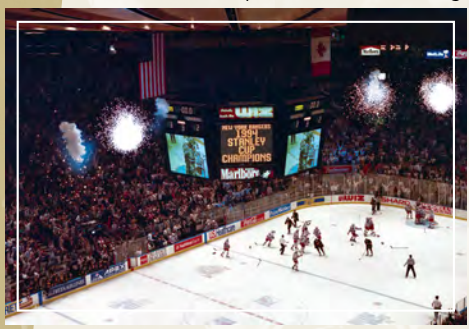
This group of Rangers, anchored by goaltender John Davidson, led the Rangers to series victories over Los Angeles and Philadelphia in the first two rounds of the 1979 Playoffs. In the Semifinals, the Blueshirts upset the top-seeded Islanders in six games to advance to the Stanley Cup Finals, thanks in large part to the goaltending of "JD." The Rangers remarkable run ended in the Finals, as the Montreal Canadiens defeated the Blueshirts in five games.

The trip to the 1979 Finals was the second of 10 straight playoff appearances for the Rangers, stretching from 1977-78 to 1986-87. During this time, the team added many colorful characters and fan favorites, including defensemen Barry Beck and Reijo Ruotsalainen, forwards Mike Rogers, Mark Pavelich, Pierre Larouche and Jan Erixon, and goaltender John Vanbiesbrouck.

Toward the end of this era, the Blueshirts drafted two players who would be instrumental in the team's success for the next two decades. First, the Rangers selected goaltender Mike Richter in the second round of the 1985 NHL Draft. The following year, the Blueshirts used the ninth overall pick to draft a defenseman from Connecticut named Brian Leetch.

It was not, however, until 1991 that the Rangers truly took their first step down the road to a long-awaited Stanley Cup championship in 1994. In September of that year, the team signed free agent forward Adam Graves, and one month later, acquired future Hall of Famer Mark Messier from the Edmonton Oilers. Messier, who was named captain prior to the Rangers' home opener on October 7, led the Blueshirts to the Presidents' Trophy, and won the Hart Trophy in 1991-92. Despite the team's success during the regular season, the Rangers were eliminated by Pittsburgh in six games in the Patrick Division Finals.

In 1993-94, the Rangers once again finished with the NHL's top record, as they established franchise records with 52 wins and 112 points during the regular season. After defeating the Islanders and Capitals in the first two rounds of the playoffs, the Blueshirts fell behind three games to two to the New Jersey Devils in the Eastern Conference Finals. Facing elimination on the road in Game 6, Messier guaranteed that the Rangers would win the game, and then tallied a natural hat trick in the third period to lead the Rangers to a 4-2 victory. Two nights later, the Rangers advanced to the Finals with a 2-1 win in Game 7, as Stephane Matteau scored the game-winning goal in double-overtime.



After ousting New Jersey, the Rangers faced the Vancouver Canucks in the Finals. The series turned into another seven-game thriller for the Blueshirts, which ended with a 3-2 victory in Game 7 at MSG. The Rangers' fourth Cup and the numerous franchise records set that season continued a long, distinguished history marked by outstanding team and individual performances. The emergence of superstars Leetch, Richter and Graves, who broke Hadfield's team record with 52 goals in 1993-94, provided the organization with the on-ice skill and off-ice leadership in order to consistently have a Stanley Cup-caliber roster.

Just two years after winning the Cup, the Rangers made headlines again in 1996 by signing the greatest player in NHL history. Wayne Gretzky would play a big part in the team's run to the 1997 Conference Finals during the first of his three seasons with the Blueshirts. "The Great One" played the final game of his NHL career with the Ranger on April 18, 1999. During the pre-game ceremony, the NHL announced that Gretzky's No. 99 would never be worn by another player.

In the years that followed, the Rangers would also say goodbye to the legends that graced The Garden ice in the 1990s. The first departure was the premature retirement of Richter, who was forced to hang up his skates due to injuries. For 14 seasons, he had provided Rangers fans with some of the team's most historic moments, including his performance in the 1994 Stanley Cup run. Richter's accomplishments were celebrated by the team when his No. 35 was raised to the rafters of Madison Square Garden on February 4, 2004, becoming just the third player after Gilbert and Giacomin to have such an honor bestowed on him.

The 2003-04 season featured another great moment as Messier passed Gordie Howe for second on the NHL's all-time scoring list, trailing only his friend and former teammate Gretzky. It was one of the final great accomplishments of Messier's career, because following the lockout season of 2004-05, the man known as "The Captain" announced his retirement. Messier had played 10 of his 25 NHL seasons in New York, and was recognized as the difference-maker on the 1994 Cup team. On Jan. 12, 2006, the Rangers honored Messier's legacy by retiring his No. 11 in a special on-ice ceremony prior to the Rangers – Edmonton Oilers game.

Two years after Messier's number went to the MSG rafters, the Rangers retired Leetch's No. 2. Perhaps the greatest defenseman in Rangers history, Leetch re-wrote every scoring record by a blueliner in his sparkling 17-year career in New York, netting 240 goals, 741 assists and 981 points. During his Rangers tenure, Leetch became the only NHL player other than Bobby Orr to win the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year, the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP, and the Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman (twice).

In 2008-09, Adam Graves was the fourth and final member of the 1994 Championship team to have his number raised to The Garden rafters. Graves spent 10 years with the Rangers, and finished his career third on the Blueshirts' all-time goals list (280). The two-time Rangers' MVP (1992-93, 1993-94) will always be best known for his achievements and contributions to the Rangers magical 1994 Stanley Cup team, helping break a 54-year old championship drought.

That same year, the organization retired Howell's No. 3, and Bathgate's No. 9. Two of the classiest men to play for the Rangers, Howell and Bathgate were the premier Blueshirts during the 1950s and 1960s. Howell holds the team record for career games played (1,160), while Bathgate ranks fourth in team history in goals (272), assists (457), and points (729).

Following the lockout that cancelled the 2004-05 season, the Rangers' President and General Manager Glen Sather built a team around a combination of young, homegrown players and skilled veterans. The mix produced instant results, as the 2005-06 Blueshirts won 44 games and posted the sixth 100-point campaign in team history to return to the playoffs.

The Rangers were led by two players who represented the blend of experience and youth on the roster. Jaromir Jagr, who was acquired in the middle of the 2003-04 season, established Rangers' single-season records with 54 goals and 123 points and won the Lester B. Pearson Award for the NHL's Most Outstanding Player as chosen by fellow players. While Jagr led the team offensively, the Blueshirts were anchored in goal by a 24-year-old from Sweden named Henrik Lundqvist, who established a Rangers' rookie record with 30 wins and was named a finalist for the Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender.

KING HENRIK'S REIGN

Lundqvist has captivated the hearts and minds of Rangers fans with his tremendous skill and unparalleled intensity on the ice. The Rangers' all-time wins and shutouts leader was named Team MVP in seven consecutive seasons (2006-07 – 2012-13), setting franchise records for most consecutive Team MVPs and most overall Team MVPs.

Building off their return to the playoffs, the Rangers became one of the NHL's elite teams. In 2011-12, the Blueshirts posted a 51-24-7 record to finish in first place in the Eastern Conference, and Lundqvist won his first Vezina Trophy. New York advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals, defeating Ottawa and Washington in two exhilarating seven-game series along the way.

The Rangers continued their ascension during the 2013-14 season. Under first-year head coach Alain Vigneault, the team adopted a style of play with an emphasis on speed and puck possession, and the Blueshirts acquired Martin St. Louis to add more offense to the mix.

After defeating Philadelphia in the first round of the playoffs, the Rangers trailed Pittsburgh 3-1 after the first four games. However, the Blueshirts won three straight games to upset the Penguins, and beat Montreal in six games to advance to the Stanley Cup Final. The Rangers' inspiring run was derailed in the Final, where they lost to the Kings.

The three finished 3-4-5 in the NHL scoring race that season and led the Rangers to a berth in the Stanley Cup Finals. He was also a Second All-Star Team selection in 1967-68. In 1976, Gilbert won the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. Then, in 1982, he joined the immortals of the game upon his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. Later, he would be inducted into the Madison Square Garden Hall of Fame in 1984 and capture the 1991 Lester Patrick Award for contributions to hockey in the United States.

Giacomin played in six NHL All-Star Games (1967, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1973), including five straight appearances from 1967 to 1971. The netminder was selected as a First Team All-Star two times (1967, 1971), and was honored as a Second Team All-Star three times (1968, 1969, 1970). In 1971, he was awarded the Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender, sharing the honor with Gilles Villemure. In addition to his puckstopping ability, Giacomin made Rangers history on March 19, 1972 when he became the first Blueshirt goalie to register a multiple-point game with two assists vs. Toronto at Madison Square Garden. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1987.

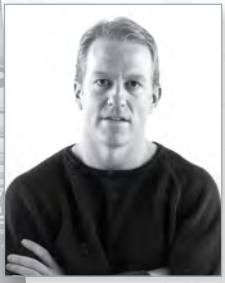
Brian Leetch was honored on January 24, 2008, as the fifth Ranger and first defenseman to join the team's all-time legends when his No. 2 was retired at Madison Square Garden.

A two-time Norris Trophy winner as the league's top defenseman and a two-time NHL First Team All-Star ('92, '97), Leetch also enjoyed international success capturing a silver medal with Team USA at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, Utah. In June of 1997, he was honored as one of 12 players voted to the All-Time USA Hockey Team.



9 ADAM GRAVES | 1991-2001

Adam Graves became the sixth player in Rangers history and fourth from the 1994 Stanley Cup Championship team to have his number retired on February 3, 2009.

One of the most popular figures to ever wear the Blueshirt, Adam Graves spent 10 years with the Rangers, setting a watermark in professional sports for excellence both on and off the ice. Graves retired as a player in 2003 following a 17-year career, finishing with 329 goals and 287 assists for 616 points. The two-time Rangers' MVP ('93, '94) will always be best known for his achievements and contributions to the Rangers magical 1994 Stanley Cup team, helping break a 54-year championship drought. Graves set the Rangers' single season record for most goals in the 1993-94 season, tallying 52 goals to break Vic Hadfield's 22-year mark of 50. His remarkable achievements during that storied season earned him an appearance in the NHL All-Star Game, and he was named as a NHL Second Team All-Star. Graves' accomplishments on the ice were matched only by his contributions off the ice, as is evident by his numerous awards and accolades celebrating his work in the community. He was recognized by the NHL with its King Clancy Memorial Trophy in 1994, as well as the NHL Player Foundation award in 2000. In 2001, the Professional Hockey Writer`s Association honored Graves with the Bill Masterton Trophy. Outside his numerous league and team awards, Graves has been recognized with honors from countless organizations and publications for his achievements in the community, including USA Weekend`s "Most Caring Athlete" Award, Sports Illustrated for Kids` "Good Sport" Award and The Sporting News` "Good Guy" Award. Graves returned to the Rangers on July 19, 2005, in a unique dual role that uses his myriad of abilities in both the on-ice and off-ice areas of the organization. In this multi-faceted capacity, Graves is a key element in the development of the team's prospects while continuing to develop and execute the organization's many community outreach initiatives.

ANDY BATHGATE | 1952-1964

Andy Bathgate joined the team's all-time legends when his No. 9 was raised to the rafters of Madison Square Garden on February 22, 2009.

Hall of Famer Andy Bathgate did it all for the Rangers in a remarkable 12-year span that saw him captain the team, win the NHL's Hart Trophy as league MVP, play in eight NHL All-Star Games and tie for the league scoring lead. In 1,069 career games, he recorded 349 goals and 624 assists for 973 points in 17 NHL seasons. Bathgate joined the Rangers organization as a 17-year-old in 1949, and got his first call-up to the Blueshirts early in the 1952-53 season. The four-time Rangers' MVP ('57, '58, '59, '62) led the team in scoring eight times (1955-56, 1956-57, 1957-58, 1958-59, 1959-60, 1960-61, 1961-62, 1962-63). His finest season came in 1958-59, when he became the first Rangers player to net 40 goals in a single season and was awarded the Hart Trophy as the league's MVP. A two-time NHL First Team All-Star ('59, '62) and two-time NHL Second Team All-Star ('58, '63), Bathgate tied for the NHL scoring title during the 1961-62 season, only to lose the Art Ross Trophy to Bobby Hull because he had fewer goals. Named team captain in 1961, Bathgate helped the Rangers snap a four-year playoff drought that season. He remained Captain right up until he left the Rangers in February 22, 1964, as the owner of every major team scoring record. His record-setting stretch of goals in 10-straight games (11 goals) during the 1962-63 season still stands today, as Bathgate`s legacy as one of the greatest Blueshirts of all time lives on.

HARRY HOWELL | 1952-1969

Harry Howell became the second defenseman in Rangers history to have his number retired when his No. 3 was honored on February 22, 2009,at Madison Square Garden.

Howell skated in 1,411 career games, registering 94 goals and 324 assists for 418 points. His franchise record of 1,160 regular season games as a Ranger might never be broken. Inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1979, Howell joined the team as a 19-year-old on October 18, 1952, recording a goal in his first NHL game. Over the next 17 years, he became a fixture on defense for the Blueshirts, missing only 40 out of 1,200 regular-season games. Having played in six NHL All-Star Games ('54, '63 – '65, '67, '68), his finest season came in 1966-67 when he registered 12 goals and 28 assists for 40 points to capture the Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman and was selected to the NHL First All-Star Team. Howell was the last player to win the Norris Trophy before Bobby Orr won the award over the next eight seasons. The former team Captain ('55 – '57) was also honored as Rangers' MVP in 1964, and is one of only four Rangers – along with Andy Bathgate, Rod Gilbert and Mark Messier – to have won the Frank Boucher Trophy three straight seasons ('65 – '67).

The John Halligan Good Guy Award recognizes a player for their cooperation with the media throughout the season. The award has been presented annually since the 1974-75 season, and was renamed in 2009-10 to honor the team's late public relations director. Halligan joined the Rangers organization in 1963, and served a number of roles in his 24 years with the Rangers, including Public Relations Director and Business Manager, Vice President of Communications, and Director of Community Relations and Special Projects. Following his distinguished 53-year career with the Rangers and the National Hockey League, Halligan was honored by USA Hockey and the NHL with the Lester Patrick Award in 2007 for his service to hockey in the United States. TEAM AWARD WINNERS

LARS-ERIK SJOBERG AWARD (BEST ROOKIE OF TRAINING CAMP)

The Lars-Erik Sjoberg is awarded annually to the top Rangers rookie during training camp. The award, which was first presented in 1988, bears the name of Lars-Erik Sjoberg, who was the Rangers chief European scout for eight years. During his time with the Blueshirts, Sjoberg played a prominent role in the team's decision to draft Europeans such as Tomas Sandstrom, Jan Erixon, and Ulf Dahlen. Prior to joining the Rangers as a scout, Sjoberg played five seasons with the Winnipeg Jets during their time in the World Hockey Association (WHA), and also skated with Winnipeg in its inaugural NHL season in 1979-80. He passed away on October 20, 1987 at the age of 43.

RANGERS FAN CLUB FRANK BOUCHER TROPHY (MOST POPULAR PLAYER ON AND OFF THE ICE)

The Frank Boucher Trophy is awarded annually to the Ranger who is considered the most popular player on and off the ice, as chosen by members of the Rangers Fan Club. The trophy bears the name of Rangers legend and Hall of Famer Frank Boucher, who was a member of the organization for 31 years as a player, coach, and general manager. During his 13-year playing career with the Blueshirts, he won the Lady Byng Trophy seven times, the most of any player in NHL history, and captured the Stanley Cup in 1927-28 and 1932-33. He also led the Rangers to the franchise's third Stanley Cup in his first season as head coach in 1939-40. He is one of only two men, along with Lester Patrick, who have won three Stanley Cups with the Rangers.

* For the 1999-00 season, the NHL awarded teams one point for a regulation tie (RT.) Beginning in 2000-01, the NHL amended the rule, awarding teams one point for an overtime loss (OTL.)During the 2005-06 season, the NHL instituted the shootout to follow a scoreless five-minute overtime to eliminate ties. The winning team in the shootout gains two points and a win in the standings, while the losing team receives one point, recorded as an "OT" in the standings.

• For the 1999-00 season, the NHL awarded teams one point for a regulation tie (RT.) Beginning with the 2000-01, the NHL amended the rule, awarding teams one point for an overtime loss (OTL.) During the 2005-06 season, the NHL instituted the shootout to follow a scoreless five-minute overtime to eliminate ties. The winning team in the shootout gains two points and a win in the standings, while the losing team receives one point, recorded as an "OT" in the standings.

* Due to illness to Tom Webster, head coaching situation changed several times during season.

 John Tortorella served as interim coach for the remainder of the 1999-00 season, replacing John Muckler.

 From 1999-00 through 2003-04, coaches were charged with a loss if their team lost in overtime, even though the team was not credited with a loss. Beginning in 2005-06, coaches were no longer charged with a loss if the team lost in overtime or a shootout, instead receiving a mark in the "OT" column. For career records, this statistic is incorporated in the third column, in addition to career ties.

Credentials: Two media credentials are honored for admission to Madison Square Garden: 1) Rangers 2014-15 season working media passes; 2) Rangers single game passes (good for that specific game only.) NO OTHER CREDENTIALS WILL BE HONORED.

Application for season or game credentials must be made by emailing Ryan Nissan at ryan.nissan@msg.com. Requests for single game credentials must be made by e-mail to the Rangers' office a minimum of one day prior to game time. Radio stations, magazines and weekly newspapers will be accommodated on a game-by-game, space-available basis. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers, radio and TV stations must be made on company letterhead and must include copies of the publication (if applicable.) Applying for credentials does not guarantee confirmation. When in The Garden, media members must wear their credentials in clear sight at all times. All credentials are non-transferable.

Parking: There is no media parking area at Madison Square Garden. However, there are numerous pay indoor and outdoor parking areas in the immediate vicinity.

Taxi: Taxi service is readily available virtually 24 hours a day at various points around The Garden, especially at the main entrance to Penn Station (7th Avenue bet. 31st and 33rd Streets) and immediately outside the 8 Penn Plaza press entrance (southeast corner of 33rd Street and 8th Avenue, across from the Post Office.)

Press Entrance: Madison Square Garden's press entrance (8 Penn Plaza) is located on the southeast corner of 33rd Street and 8th Avenue. Day-of-game credentials may be picked up there starting three hours prior to game time.

Use the press elevator to enter The Garden arena. The locker rooms and ice surface are located on Level 5.

Press Room: Named in memory of the legendary public address voice of The Garden, the John F.X. Condon Press Room is located on the sixth floor of The Garden near Tower C. From the press entrance, take the elevator directly to Level 6 and turn right. The media dining area and interview room are located on the fifth floor directly below the main work room, with a staircase connecting the two rooms.

The dining area (hot and cold buffet) opens 90 minutes prior to game time. With work stations for print, photo and broadcast media, the press workroom is for the exclusive use of working media filing on deadline. Please confine all social gatherings, arguments, debates and other such conversations to the dining area on the fifth floor, so that a professional atmosphere can be maintained in the workroom. If you are not a working media member filing on deadline, please show a sense of professionalism and leave the work area for those who are.

Your $8 contribution to the press room will benefit "Garden of Dreams," the 501c3 non-profit charity that works closely with all areas of Madison Square Garden, including the New York Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, MSG Media and MSG Entertainment "to make dreams come true for kids facing obstacles". Thank you for your support.

Seating: Press seating for Rangers beat writers, traveling writers, and a limited number of additional media is located on the South Chase Bridge in sections 324,325,326 and 327, and can be reached using the Tower B elevator. Those holding Rangers season credentials must contact the Rangers PR office to reserve seating. Broadcast locations for the 2014-15 season are also on the South Chase Bridge.

Locker Rooms: Both the Rangers and visitors' locker rooms are located on the fifth floor directly behind the player benches. As per NHL media policy, the locker room will open five minutes after the conclusion of the game. During post-game media sessions all interviews should be limited to game comments. Please act in a professional working manner at all times while in the locker room. Any media members using their credentials for the purpose of obtaining autographs or taking photographs for personal use will have their credentials immediately revoked.

Coaches Post-Game: The postgame availability for Rangers Head Coach Alain Vigneault will be conducted in the lower level of the Press Room (fifth floor.) A mult box/amplification system will be set up. During post-game coaches media sessions, priority will be given to those media on deadline (print and live broadcast), and interviews should be limited to game comments during the deadline crunch.

Notes: Game notes will be available in the press room beginning two hours prior to game time. Post-game quotes, notes and stat sheets of other NHL games will be available in the press room as soon as possible after the game. In addition, post-game materials will be sent out electronically.

Fax: Visiting media needing a final boxscore faxed back to their offices should inform any member of the Rangers game-night staff during the game.

Phones: Media wishing to order a phone line for their exclusive use should call Bill Bolan of Garden Telecommunications at (212) 465-6009, and must also inform Rangers PR so that a specific location can be assigned.

Practices: Rangers practice sessions are held at Madison Square Garden Training Center in Tarrytown, NY, located in Westchester County approximately 25 miles north of New York City. Rangers morning skates will be held at Madison Square Garden. Players will be made available in the locker room five minutes after the conclusion of practice, followed by a media availability with Coach Vigneault.

Rangers practices are always subject to last-minute change and/or cancellation
